Another Successful Carnival

It was football fever when 200 young men came together in Lake Grace over the weekend of the 14th and 15th June to play in the annual Rossi Boots Colts Football Carnival. With eight teams competing there was enough play to keep the many spectators occupied.

Teams taking part were Goldfields, Clontarf, Great Southern, Ongerup, Upper Great Southern, Esperance, Eastern Districts and Combined Futures Side. Eight games were played on two ovals on the Saturday and another four on the Sunday before the Grand Final on Sunday afternoon.

Saturday was a great beginning for the weather was perfect with only a little wind to influence the games. All participants played hard throughout the weekend; no matter what the score line, no side stopped trying. Sunday wasn't so pleasant with the wind making it hard to score on the Northern end. Before the Grand Final the rain came down. A wet and heavy ball changed the pace of the game and although the wind was not as strong, it still influenced the ball in the air.

After two wins each on the Saturday, it was Upper Great Southern and Great Southern facing off in the Grand Final. In their first win since 2003 Upper Great Southern defeated Great Southern 16 goals 10 (106) to 6 goals 3 (39).

The presentation began with John O'Neill welcoming everyone and hoping all enjoyed the weekend, he then handed over to Graham Taylor of the Great Southern Football Council who said a few words before introducing Bradley Joyce to present the cup to Josh Hughes and Geoff Sims, the Captain and Coach of the winning side. Geoff then presented the team with their individual medals.

Clem Bray then presented his Fairest and Best for the Grand Final award which was won by Damien Roe from the Upper Great Southern team.

First Solo Exhibition for Kerrie Argent

"Canopy", Kerrie Argent's solo exhibit, opened Wednesday 4th June 2008 at the Katanning Art Gallery. A group of 40 interested and intrigued people came to the opening. This included a bus load of Kerrie's Lake Grace and Newdegate friends and colleagues who enjoyed the noisy trip over and back, safely skippered by Kerrie's husband Greg. Kerrie's brother travelled from Muchea and friends from Collie also came to support.

The pieces ranged from her now famous hand dyed silk layered evening dress, close up photos printed onto aluminium and canvas; all giving off completely different finishes. There were silk panels dyed from the colours obtained from leaves and bark from a range of eucalyptus trees at different times of the year; all from her property north east of Lake Grace. Each panel is hand cut with heat to create the lace patterns.

A collection of seed pods from different trees and handmade pods with seed pod designs, hung from the ceiling. The pieces that were admired as a new sensation were "The Treasure Given". Flattened cans were heated to achieve varying colours, then leaves and branches embossed into the aluminium to make the design. They were combined with organza silk panels depicting different images from photographs taken of seed pods that had opened after the Kukerin fire. Seven of these pieces were sold during the night, along with three of the prints.

The exhibition was opened by Beth Loudon, the Department of Environment and Conservation's Flora Conservation Officer, who then handed over to Kerrie for a few words. Bruce Gilbert the curator of the Katanning Art Gallery felt the exhibition should go to an Art Gallery in Perth. He has already made a couple of phone calls in support of Kerrie's work.

While people enjoyed and interacted with the art works, they indulged in Lake Grace's Walkers' Wine. It was a very enjoyable evening, wandering through what nature has to offer in the range of colours, textures and designs.

Congratulations Kerrie on your first solo exhibition, we are looking forward to more in the future. The exhibit was open until Monday 16th at the Katanning Art Gallery.

New Registered Nurse for Lake Grace Hospital

Registered Nurse Ms Khonzile Sibanda has commenced working at Lake Grace Hospital.

We would like to extend a warm welcome to Khonzi and I know everyone in this friendly community will make her feel very welcome.

Khonzi's flight arrived in Perth last Tuesday morning from Bulawayo [Zimbabwe] via Johannesburg minus her luggage!!

Joe and June McEncroe were there to meet her from the plane to bring her to Lake Grace, but first had to detour to the shops to buy some essentials until her luggage arrived on the next flight!!

Khonzi is on a two year sponsored 457 visa and it has taken 10 months from the time June first made an Expression of Interest to WA Country Health Services to commence the sponsorship documentation until Khonzi arrived on the plane last week.

Khonzi has 11 year old twins [son Makhosi and daughter Nobukhosi] and a 13 year old son [Nkosi] back home in Bulawayo staying with her sister. She hopes her children will be able to join her here as soon as they acquire their passports.

*"This is the day...this is the day...
that the Lord has made...that the Lord has made.
We will rejoice...we will rejoice and be glad in it...and be glad in it."*

Whilst the musicians strummed their guitars melodiously to the tune of "This is the Day", voices sang out loud welcoming the arrival of the World Youth Day Cross and Icon in Lake Grace last June 2, 2008. It was a joyful day of God's blessing - the Cross of Christ has come to visit Lake Grace to send the message of God's love to everyone. Specifically entrusted to the youth of the world by the late saintly Pope John Paul II, the Cross and Icon have been going around Australia as preparation for World Youth Day (WYD) on July 15-20, 2008 in Sydney.

Gathering under the roof of the Lake Grace bbq area, people present witnessed the assembling of the 380cm x 176cm cross at 5.30pm. As darkness crept in, candles were lit casting light upon the holy wooden Cross and glass framed Icon which have been going around the world for 25 years, most especially in places which desperately need the hope of Christ like Ground Zero in New York, USA. Weighing 40kg, it took several women and men to lift the Cross upright to be viewed by everyone. Once it stood, indeed, everyone silently agreed, "this is the day that the Lord has made."

After a brief yet meaningful welcome ceremony, the Cross and Icon were processed through Stubbs Street - Lake Grace's main road. Lit candles beautifully adorned the processional path to Maria Regina Catholic Church and it highlighted the Cross and Icon which several women and men took turns in carrying. There was an overwhelming presence of joy on everyone's faces as this was obviously a rare moment "that the Lord has made." After all, joy is the indubitable sign of the presence of God!

The procession was the prologue to the main event— the celebration of the Holy Mass with the presence of the WYD Cross and Icon. Most Rev Gerard Holohan, Catholic Bishop of the Bunbury Diocese, presided over the Holy Mass. During the Mass, everyone was given the privileged moment of being 'at the foot of the Cross' during veneration time. It was a special time for everyone to say a prayer whilst holding the Cross or kneeling before it. By the way people showed their respect to the Cross, it was evident that the Spirit was moving everyone to understand and experience what the Cross stands for. People truly felt God's love knowing that Christ died on the cross. People genuinely felt God's love knowing that our human burdens find solace in the triumph of Christ over the Cross. People confidently felt God's love knowing that God sends people like Simon Cyrene, who helped Jesus carry his cross, to help us deal with our own challenges in life. The presence of God's love was clearly evident and people 'rejoice and be glad in it.'

Chris Trevenen leads the procession of the Icon and Cross along Stubbs St, Lake Grace. The boy helping carry the 40kg cross is Jacob Nenke of Kukerin. (Photo: Genni Curtin)

The rejoicing continued well through the evening when people gathered in the Parish House for a meal. It was a wonderful occasion to share personal experiences and insights on the Cross and Icon and to meet the Team accompanying it around Australia. The WYD 08 Team give witness to the Cross they follow - they gave up their jobs just to "follow the Cross". We remember Christ's invitation to us in the Scriptures, "If you wish to follow me, you must leave everything behind, take up your cross, and follow me." Led by Fr Chris Ryan, the Team have got such a profound relationship with Christ and to one another and it would be impossible not to notice it. John and Nat Curtin witnessed how two of the male members of WYD Team who were billeted to their home prayed for a long time before hitting the sack.

The WYD Team left with the Cross and Icon the next day, June 3, travelling to Esperance. The presence of the Cross and Icon left an indelible mark on those who were there and were very grateful for the opportunity to have been blessed by it. It was obviously 'just a piece of wood' but no-one can underestimate the power of God to work through 'just some piece of wood.' It has moved millions of people around the world and continues to do so. People have found hope through the Cross. Different nations around the globe experienced healing through the Cross. The Cross is a living sign of God's love. We can never be wrong in believing that there is a God who loves us unconditionally, and who will always cares for us even if the going gets tough.

People have given their testimony about their experiences and insights on the Cross. They are powerful symbols themselves expressing God's handiwork in the lives of those who have opened their lives to the grace of God.

"Being in the presence of the Cross and Icon gave me such a deep feeling of humility, knowing all the countries where they had been venerated, bringing hope and comfort to so many people. The fact that the youth in so many war torn countries requested that the Cross be brought to them, sometimes having to be smuggled across the borders, gives us a great example of faith in God, even while experiencing the horrors of war." - Annie Slarke

"A truly humbling experience. All wished to linger at the momentous occasion. Everyone too reluctant to leave." - Edith Trevenen

"The cross was much more significant than we could have imagined and has certainly left its mark on us. It is only a humble piece of wood but in 25 years this cross has travelled to so many places and touched so many people and been in so many situations from tragic events to joyful occasions that in many ways it was humbling to stand before it. To many it would be just a couple of pieces of wood but even a little faith allows one into the 'presence' this cross represents. We were very blessed as a community to have this cross visit us in Lake Grace and it was a pleasure to have the opportunity to meet and spend time with the young team accompanying the cross around Australia. They are an inspiration." - Genni & Steve Curtin

Beth and John Curtin visit the WYD Cross and Icon before going to school. (Photo: Genni Curtin)

"Following the WYD cross at night through the streets of Lake Grace with candles blazing was a very special sight to behold. But the fellowship after mass was especially poignant as we mingled with some beautiful people of faith who have given up jobs, study and so much more to spread the "good news" of God, that was the most powerful aspect of the night for me." - Amanda Nenke

"To learn of the 'history' of this cross was very enlightening. To know that it was made specifically for the youth of the world to bring God and the meaning of His love closer to them. To have travelled into lands of war, famine and hardship that we do not know of is a reminder to our youth and ourselves just how blessed we are in Australia. A privileged to be there and share the love that the cross holds." - Chris and Lee-Anne Trevenen

The Photo Express photo booth at the Lake Grace Telecentre has been a resounding success with no shortage of photographers coming in to print their photos. This has been a huge relief to the Telecentre Committee and staff who very tentatively went out on a limb to have the photo printing machine installed.

With a contract in place that meant the Telecentre had to have 32 customers using the machine each month (if they didn't have 32 they would have to pay the shortfall) there were concerns that after the initial couple of months interest, numbers would drop off and the machine could become a millstone around the Telecentre's neck.

A flood of interest in the first month after the machine was installed in July of 2007 was quickly followed by a dip in numbers in the second month; however since then there has been a steady flow in numbers through the door, with an average of 53 customers per month. At no time has the Telecentre been in danger of not having their 32 customers each month. In the eleven months since installation 17,500 standard photos have been printed; on top of this there have been 370 6" x 8" photos, 160 novelty prints (borders, collages etc.) and 60 ID prints.

There have been few problems with the machine; a printer head had to be replaced in April which was quickly followed by the entire printer being replaced due to the printer film breaking.

The label of 'photo booth' caused some confusion at first with people thinking you sat in it, had your photo taken and then received ID sized prints. The machine is basically a computer attached to a printer; it is capable of taking a variety of memory cards, flash drives and CD's. It only prints photos in two sizes, but can also do a variety of calendars, collages and borders.

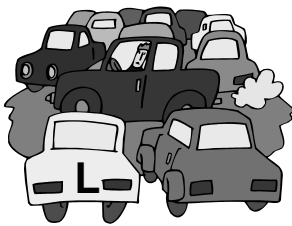

In comparison to the home printer, the photo booth is high on quality and very cost efficient for the consumer. The consumer is also able to select their photos and have them printed on the spot; a facility that is not available in the metropolitan area for this price. One hundred take no more than 15 minutes to print.

Fire Engine Visits Playgroup

Thursday 5th June finally arrived, a day the children of Lake Grace Playgroup had been waiting for...a visit from the Lake Grace Fire Engine.

With lights flashing it entered our Playgroup and was welcomed by lots of amazed little faces. Some little ones were not so sure of the siren! Fireman Hutter kindly allowed the kids to explore the inside the cab, bringing lots of laughter and a few excitable 'screams'. Next job was to crank up the water pump and show the kids how the water hose is used to put out fires, not a real one of course. You forget how innocent these little beings are and how life is such a huge lesson when reeling up the hose was even something to be wowed at.

All in attendance, including parents, had a fantastic morning, discovering the Fire Engine and learning from our local fireman, in full uniform and hat. A perspective his daughter, Katelyn, wasn't so sure about. Think she prefers the everyday outfit?! If any of Playgroup's neighbours were wondering what the sirens were about, it was just a very special visitor of ours.

Playgroup would like to say a HUGE "THANK YOU" to Fireman Hutter for his time, the children loved it.

Staff Profile

Pretty in Pink Cadence Linley

Lance White and Bill McKenna had an idea one night over a few ales that came to fruition in the form of 'passing around the hat' for Cadence.

Shire staff held a gathering at the Lake Grace Works Depot for Cadence and her family and presented them with a voucher to go towards clothing for her. Given that she has spent 15 months in hospital, it was a very welcome surprise gift.

Cadence was born 10 weeks premature on the 24th February 2007 and has spent 15 months of her life in Princess Margaret Hospital. In that time she has undergone 9 operations and her family came close to losing her five times - hence her Pop Dave Evans describing her as a 'Miracle'. Cadence's family have nothing but praise and heartfelt thanks to PMH and the wonderful staff. Cadence and her Mum are now living in Lake Grace with dad Shane, and they have been overwhelmed with the kind thoughts and special presents that they have received. They are very much looking forward to raising Cadence in Lake Grace and we know that her Pop is going to spoil her at every chance he gets!

We welcome back to Lake Grace Bill McKenna who has been appointed as the Works Overseer with the Shire of Lake Grace. We are grateful for the skills and expertise Bill brings to his position and his wife Sue is moving to Lake Grace this week.

Gary Seward, Supervisor Parks and Gardens, has resigned and is heading to Hopetoun to take up a position with the Water Corporation.

We wish Gary and Lorraine the best of luck in their new ventures and with trying to catch 'the big one'!

SCIENCE AND STUFF

SUN, SKIN AND THE WRONG SET OF GENES:

Red hair, freckles and pale skin make you sun sensitive, but genes, not pigmentation, may be the ultimate guide to who is most likely to get skin cancer after sitting in the sun. Genes for light hair and skin and the risk of skin cancer tend to go hand in hand. For instance, the same mutations in a gene called MC1R that cause red hair and freckles also greatly increase the chances of getting melanoma if you sunbathe.

But not all such genes are equally affected by sunlight. Researchers led by Kari Stefansson of Decode Genetics have identified a mutation in a gene called ASIP that, like MC1R, is linked to red hair and freckles and increases the likelihood of getting skin cancer (Nature, DOI: 10.1038/ng.161). Interestingly though, this ASIP variant doubles the risk of melanoma even in sun-starved Icelanders, indicating that its skin cancer effect is less dependant on sunlight than MC1R's.

"In Iceland you can avoid sunlight because it is so rare," says Stefansson. In contrast, his team found that having the MC1R variant had little effect on Icelandic people's risk of developing skin cancer, indicating that its effect was highly dependant on exposure to sunlight. "It doesn't look like it's just pigmentation," agrees geneticist Stuart MacGregor of the Queensland Institute of Medical Research in Brisbane, Australia.

FIRST COUSINS:

Know the risks. Should countries introduce laws that would have made the first-cousin marriages of Darwin and Einstein illegal? In many cultures, tradition favours marriage to someone within the extended family. Some European politicians claim that the children of immigrant populations with such traditions have an unacceptably high risk of genetic disorders and are calling for marriages between first cousins to be banned, as they are in most US states.

But geneticist Alan Bittles of Murdoch University in Perth, Western Australia, says education and genetic testing is the best way to minimise the risk. To estimate the risk, Bittle reviewed 48 studies from 11 countries. He found that infant mortality is only 1.2 per cent higher among the children of first cousins compared with children that have more distantly related parents. That is in line with a 2002 review suggesting that first-cousin children are less than 3 per cent more likely to have birth defects. However, the risk of genetic disease in a particular population may depend on how genetically diverse it is. Paediatrician Peter Corry of St Luke's Hospital in Bradford, UK, estimates that among people in the city of Pakistani descent, 55 per cent of whom marry first cousins, the risk of a recessive genetic disorder – the type often due to related parents – is 10 to 15 times that in the general population. A 2004 study found that 13 out of every 1000 Asian children born in the area had recessive disorders. "But it is important to remember that there are lots of other, non-genetic reasons for illness and death in children," Corry says. "And even in places like Bradford most people, even cousins, have healthy children." (New Scientist May 24th 2008 p.4).

YABBIES NEVER FORGET A FACE:

It's plausible to think of an elephant that never forgets, but extraordinary yabby memories are harder to believe. Yet it seems that when it comes to recognising past opponents, yabbies are the 'rememberers' of the invertebrate world. The aptly named Cherax destructor, or common yabby, is an aggressive species of freshwater crayfish. "Yabbies usually fight when they meet," says Prof David Macmillan, Head of the University of Melbourne's Department of Zoology. "It is as much a way of meeting each other as a way of establishing territory." Macmillan and colleagues gave yabbies an opportunity to indulge their pugilistic natures. Afterwards the losing yabby was isolated and given a choice to spend some time with either the victorious yabby or an opponent matched for size and appearance that it had never met. It might be expected that the defeated yabby would prefer to take on an unknown individual than one that had already defeated it in a fight, but the opposite was the case. Macmillan attributes this to the "dear enemy hypothesis". In some species it's safer to be around someone you know can beat you than someone you have to test your strength against.

"Yabbies remember the smell of other crayfish but the extent to which they remember visual features has previously been unknown," Macmillan says. "Careful observation by our team showed that the facial region is the important area for recognition of yabbies during and after a fight. In particular we showed highly variable cues are used, such as colour and face width." Macmillan tried to fool the subjects by matching individuals that were indistinguishable to the human eye and adding disguise markings, but the yabbies saw through everything. So far the research has not found a time limit for yabby memory, but a defeated yabby will still recognise its victor 10 to 15 days after a fight.

FIRST MICRO-RNA TRIAL: A drug that knocks out the "micro RNA's" that usually halt protein production has entered clinical trials as a possible treatment for hepatitis C. Other forms of RNA interference work by silencing genes, but this approach increases the amount of protein that gets translated, providing a new way to treat disease (New Scientist 31 May 2008 p.7).

Year 7 Assembly

On the 29th of May 2008 the yr 7's performed their assembly.

To start the yr 7's made up ideas for our assembly. We handed in our ideas to Mrs Jones, who spent the afternoon on the computer to come up with a script of 'A Rip Off of Game Shows and Reality Shows'. We started to practise about three weeks before we actually performed.

To start the assembly off our host of the game Tom introduced the show. Like any good game shows do, we had an advert before anything occurred.

The stars of the advert were Thomas (Frog) and Bart (Bog). Thomas tried to advertise Koala Bites but was interrupted by Bart. Which meant the ad was about Bart and Thomas arguing and not about Koala Bites.

When we got back to the show, we had two very 'dangerous' Gladiators come on stage. Hurricane (Michael) and Bundy (Gracie) had a battle to see who was the strongest. The game was arm wrestling and with such a high risk sport we needed an expert who was Bill Harrigan (Darren).

We had Mr Dines and Mr Boyland come and present the honour certificates. Then Mr Boyland took the podium again and presented the student council badges.

The second part of our assembly was a quiz game, Fraser and Fergus came and asked questions about money as that was our theme last term. Students from the crowd put up their hands to answer.

We couldn't keep Mr Boyland off the stage! He was up once again to give his school report. Gabby Trevenen then gave the Student Council report.

Then we had another ad break. It was Shannon and Maddy's time to shine. They advertised Toucan Toothpaste by Humblefoobse.

Next it was time to see some singing talent. Jack (yr8), Cody (yr5), Beth (yr5) and Emma (yr3) all sang Twinkle Twinkle Little Star together. The judges gave their comments Barry Larry (Melanie) didn't let them off easy and gave mean comments to both genders. Where as Kerry Cherry (Jamie) was extremely nice.

There was one more event before we counted up the final score, a cheering contest. The boys were loud but the girls nearly made you go deaf! They were sooo loud!

Candy Mandy (Candice), our scorekeeper, added up the final score. To our surprise it was a draw. Both genders get two weeks holidays in approximately 5 weeks. The time called school holidays.

Overall I thought our assembly was a great success, Mrs Jones is behind it all and made our class look great! So thanks Mrs Jones, she deserves a huge pat on the back!

Lake Grace Art Notes

Well we have had a very busy couple of months I feel, painting workshop with Michele Theunissen, encaustic work with Helen Seiver and now wearable arts with Mand Markey, and we still have a performance workshop coming up soon. Michelle is busy finding us a performance artist who will come down and work with the community to help us with our wearable arts performance. We hope that we will have lots of students and adults attend this workshop. As some of the creators of the wearable arts will be looking for models and performers for their garments. Any one that wants to have a go is encouraged to come along. Could you please let me know even now if you are interested in being involved, mums and dads please encourage your kids to have a go, teenagers please let Kerrie or Tania or Michelle know if you are interested as it is a lot of fun.

The ladies have also been busy painting the banner to go in St Georges Terrace during local government week.

We also had a great cake stall on the 6th June thank you to every one who brought produce in, or purchased it, hope you enjoyed it and thank you to those that bought raffle tickets: winners for these were

Pot & plant -Sandra Richter
IGA $50 voucher -Toohey
CCL $50 voucher-Anne Franks
Body shop basket-Margaret Clarke
Dolls name-LIZ-Bill Jenks

Thank you to the Stanton's, Marshall's, Strevett's, and Phyllis for their generous donations for our raffle, this was very much appreciated. A special thanks to Phyllis who took time on Saturday morning to sell a few more tickets before it was drawn. This will go towards repairing our three new mobile walls Tania managed to find in Perth and Darren generously bought back for us. It will also go towards purchasing new hanging rails for the walls. And maybe towards our floor maintenance when we get time to do it.

This weekend's workshop, Wearable Arts with Mand Markey, was very interesting and informative with lots and lots of ideas coming forth. Most of the focus was concentrated on the use of paper and plastic for costume construction for wearable arts. Wwe ended up with about 15 turning up over the weekend to join in.

It was great to see some new faces at the workshop; Jeanette and Azella Trevenen; Hillary Willcocks; Bambi Lay; Kelly, Mia and Dale Gooch; and Ryan and Dean Carruthers all coming along to join the usual crew.

We had a great time creating wearable art pieces with limited time or limited material, like two pieces of newspaper and a sheet of coloured paper and having to create a piece of clothing or ornamentation to wear, in 25 minutes. This certainly made the right side of the brain get motivated.

Mand was a very informative and generous tutor, encouraging all participants to get in and have a go.

Other than making wearable art pieces from paper and 'found' objects, like Dame Edna glasses from swimming goggles, and cockroaches from baskets, fish from light shades, Martians from steaming baskets, shield from mats and so on, Mand had us doing samples so that we would know how to create costumes out of paper when we went home, so lets hope we see some fabulous costumes in the parade. Mia made an amazing hat so I hope to see her hat and a costume in the parade.

There is still a pile of recycled material on the tables in the art space so if any one is looking for material or inspiration please come and check it out.

As usual we were very well fed with every one bringing in some delicious food to share, for lunch, morning tea etc. We even managed to get Greg to bring the barby in for a barby on Saturday night, which turned out to be an excellent idea as it was a lovely balmy night before the wind and rain on Sunday.

Mand, Drew and Mabel had such a lovely time that they are hoping to come back for the art to wear performance in August.

Thank you to all the hospital staff and art group who made time to come over on the community bus and private vehicles to the opening of my exhibition in Katanning, it was greatly appreciated, marvellous actually. A big thank you to Greg, for safely skippering every one over and back on the bus, even stopping for a coffee break on the way home with Ronnie Joyce, who couldn't make the opening because she had to work.

I would also like to thank and congratulate the Lake Grace community for the time and effort they put in to come to our opening nights, even for a visiting artist like Helen Seiver's in the middle of seeding we managed to get 40 people to come along, which really does beat Katanning's attendance for opening night hands down....

Our Next meeting is next Tuesday 24th at 10am hope to see you all there. I imagine the plan will be to finish the banner so wear or bring some painting clothes so you can join in.

Welcome to Night Watch for the fortnight, from midnight Friday 21st June to midnight Friday 4th July. Astronomy is looking up. Never view the Sun with the naked eye or through binoculars and telescopes without proper solar filters as your eyes can easily be damaged beyond repair. Binoculars and telescopes can easily shatter as well. The Full Moon may also hurt your eyes without filters.

Two major events happen this fortnight: Saturday 8am will mark the Winter Solstice, this is when the Sun is on the Tropic of Cancer and will denote the real start of winter. Then on Friday 4th July at 4pm, the Earth will be at Aphelion at 152.1 million kilometres from the Sun.

Our local star, the SUN, will rise in the constellation of Taurus on Saturday, but will rise in Gemini on Sunday. Morning twilight begins on Saturday at 5:41am and on Friday 4th July at 5:43am. Evening twilight ends at 6:40pm on Saturday and at 6:44pm on Friday 4th July. The last quarter Moon will be at 8pm on Thursday 26th in the constellation of Pisces at magnitude -6.0.

On Wednesday 2nd July, the Moon will be at Perigee (closest), 359,573 Kilometres from Earth at 5am in Gemini. The new Moon will be at 10:06am in Gemini on 3rd July.

MERCURY, in the constellation of Taurus, at magnitude +1.6 on Saturday, rises at 5:43am in the morning twilight. On July 1st Mercury rises at 5:29am, 8° (4 fingers at arms length) south of the Moon at magnitude +0.7. Mercury will be at it's greatest elongation west at 22° on Wednesday 2nd July. On Friday 4th July at magnitude +0.2, Mercury sets at 5:31am.

Viewing at my home is free at any time. You are able to view the Sun, planets, galaxies, double stars, triple stars, planetary nebulae and the constellations pointed out. If you require viewing at your place or school please give me a ring and see what can be arranged. I have clearance to work with children (number 277357).

If you view something in the sky you can't understand please call as I can talk to you outside and if I can see it I will explain what it is. People see lots of strange phenomena but do not report it as it may make them look foolish. But if you have not viewed them before it is hard to understand them as your brain does not recognise them.

With the Moon rising later at night it is a good time to look at Saturn and Jupiter. There are five moons around Saturn you can view with the rings and four around Jupiter with the different coloured zones as well as moon shadows and the Great Red Spot (storm) with your telescope and some with binoculars.

The red spot is in view only for one hour at a time: 7:45pm on 22nd, 9:23pm on 24th, 6:54pm on 27th, 8:32pm on 29th, 10:11pm on 1st July, 6:03pm on 2nd and 7:41pm on 4th.

Remember to use the darkest position possible and rug up as this time of the year is the best time for viewing.

LAKE GRACE PONY CLUB

Lake Grace Pony Club held their May rally on Sunday, May 25, and it was great to see such a good turn-up. Welcome to Kate Fisher and Mum Tracey, who attended their first rally here.

Kelly Gooch took the "bit between her teeth" and coached her first rally – the kids had a great time and lessons went very smoothly. Thanks to Sheridan Fyfe for helping to coach this large leadline group. It's great to see our young riders increasing in skills and confidence, and great for the mums (and nanna's!) to have a bit of a rest from all that running!

Coaching the more advanced riders was Jane Bushby. They are a very competent little group and thrive under such attentive instruction. Riders worked on transitions, the value of being able to neck rein in games and their jumping position.

Thanks to all of the mums and dads who helped to set up and pack up gear for each lesson - it is great to see such support for our coaches.

The next rally will be held on Sunday, June 29. Classes will be starting on time, so please ensure riders are saddled up and ready to go to save wasting time.

If possible, could parents please arrive early to help coaches set up for the sessions. Don't forget to bring your theory books for the theory session.

Lunch will be on sale (thanks Nicole for arranging this), as will drinks, and could parents please bring some food to share for morning/afternoon tea.

Remember we are supporting the Debbie Spencer school at Newdegate Pony Club on July 8 and 9, so if you wish to go please contact Fanny McDonald.

HUMOUR

What's the Difference?

A Jewish man walks into a bar and sits down. He has a few drinks, then he sees a Chinese man and punches him in the face.

"Ouch!" the Chinese man says. "What was that for?"

"That was for Pearl Harbor," the Jewish man says.

"But I'm Chinese!" "Chinese, Japanese, what's the difference?" And the Jewish man sits back down.

Then, the Chinese man walks up to the Jewish man and punches him in the face.

"Ouch!" the Jewish man says. "What was that for?"

"That was for the Titanic," the Chinese man says.

"But that was an iceberg!"

"Ice berg, Goldberg, what's the difference?"

Countering the Question

A policeman pulls a man over for speeding and asks him to get out of the car. After looking the man over he says, "Sir, I couldn't help but notice your eyes are bloodshot. Have you been drinking?"

The man gets really indignant and says, "Officer, I couldn't help but notice your eyes are glazed. Have you been eating doughnuts?"

Drinking Buddies

Two men are sitting next to each other in an Irish-style pub in New York City. They both order pints of Guinness. One of them turns to the other and says "So where are you from, then?"

"I'm from Ireland."

"Me too! I'll drink to that." They both finish their pints and order two more.

"Where in Ireland are you from?"

"Dublin."

"Me too! I'll drink to that." They both finish their pints and order two more.

"Where in Dublin are you from?"

"The East Side."

"The East Side? Me too! What a coincidence! I'll drink to that!" They both finish their pints and order two more.

"Where on the East Side are you from?"

"McDonagh Street."

"Me too! This is incredible! I'll drink to that."

As the bartender pours them another two pints, another customer at the bar says to him, "That's amazing! I can't believe they're from the same street in Dublin. What's going on?"

"Oh, it's nothing amazing," says the bartender, "it's just the Ferguson twins getting sloshed again."

The Navy Chief and his Parrot

The old Navy Chief finally retired and got that chicken ranch he always wanted. He took with him his life-long pet parrot.

First morning at 0430, the parrot squawked loudly and said, "Reveille, Reveille. Up all hands. Heave out and trice up. The smoking lamp is lighted, now Reveille."

The old chief told the parrot, "We are no longer in the Navy. Go back to sleep."

The next morning, the parrot did the same thing. Chief told the parrot, "If you keep this up, I'll put you out in the chicken pen."

Again the parrot did it, and true to his word, the Chief put the parrot in the chicken pen.

About 0630 the next morning, the Chief was awakened by one heck of a ruckus in the chicken pen. He went out to see what was the matter. The parrot had about 40 white chickens at attention in formation, and on the ground layed three bruised and beaten brown chickens. The parrot was saying, "By God, when I say fall out in dress whites, I don't mean Khakis!"

Brandy to the Rescue

For a holiday, an Irishman decided to go to Switzerland to fulfill a lifelong dream and climb the Matterhorn. He hired a guide and just as they neared the top, the men were caught in a snow slide.

Three hours later, a Saint Bernard plowed through to them, a keg of brandy tied under his chin.

"Hooray!" shouted the guide. "Here comes man's best friend!"

"Yeah," said the Irishman. "An' look at the size of the dog that's bringin' it!"

Sentimental Golfer

A man and a friend are playing golf one day at their local golf course. One of the guys is about to chip onto the green when he sees a long funeral procession on the road next to the course. He stops in mid-swing, takes off his golf cap, closes his eyes, and bows down in prayer.

His friend says: "Wow, that is the most thoughtful and touching thing I have ever seen. You truly are a kind man."

The man then replies: "Yeah, well we were married 35 years."

Better Grades

Little Johnny wasn't getting good marks in school. One day he surprised the teacher with an announcement.

He tapped her on the shoulder and said, "I don't want to scare you, but my daddy says if I don't start getting better grades...somebody is going to get a spanking!"

Correction

Deciding to take a day off from his important job, a young hot-shot broker went back to visit some of his professors at his old school. Entering the school, he saw a dog attacking a small child. He quickly jumped on the dog and strangled it. The next day, the local paper reported the story with the headline "Valiant Student Saves Boy From Fearsome Dog."

The broker called the editor of the paper and strongly suggested that a correction be issued, pointing out that he was no longer a student, but a successful Wall Street broker.

The following day, the paper issued a correction, with a headline that read, "Pompous Stock Broker Kills School Mascot."

Genealogy - Tracing Our Family Tree

Lake Grace Telecentre hosted a genealogy workshop on Wednesday 11th June with Helen Hiscock from Narrogin's Family History Centre. Eighteen took part, nine in the morning session and nine in the afternoon.

The three hour sessions covered such areas as sources of information; which included official documents, church records, census, war records etc. Time was spent searching the internet on sites recommended by Helen, looking for information about family members. Proving that if you shake the tree hard enough something will fall out, two of the participants (sharing a computer at the time) discovered they were related.

Helen is the Director of the Family History Centre in Narrogin of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The Centre provides access to films of Parish Records, Australian Civil Records on microfiche, a library, and you are also able to tap into Helen's personal knowledge of tracing your Ancestors.

The Telecentre will look at running more genealogy workshops in a couple of month's time, perhaps holding another beginners course and another workshop for those who are looking to do something a little more advanced. If you are interested then please contact Suzanne Reeves at the Lake Grace Telecentre. Helen is also interested in setting up a bulk email for those who share a common interest in searching out the family tree, if you are interested then please email the Lake Grace Telecentre and we will forward your details on.

It's eyes on the screen as participants search for ancestors on the internet, all with some success!

First Aid Course for LGDHS Staff

On Saturday the 7th of June, thirteen staff from Lake Grace District High School attended a St John's First Aid course.

The course was part of the new '2 day flexible learning program' which enabled the staff to learn first aid content through completing an 8 hr CD ROM. The second day involved hands-on practising of the content we had learnt.

Things covered included bandages, emergency procedures, ways to handle stings and bites and recognising different types of injuries. It was interesting to learn that if you ask your patient if it's ok to help them, and they say yes, then you have their consent to commence first aid and it covers you from further legal action. If they are unconscious, apparently that is what is called 'implied consent' and you are covered then too!

After a nerve-racking exam, all thirteen staff were pleased to gain their senior first aid certificate.

We thank Gail Murdoch for volunteering her (unpaid!) time and for her professional and informative session.

Looking a bit like a war zone, school staff are learning the fine art of bandaging.

Murray Harrison from the Country Housing Authority presented the Harry Reeves Medal Fairest and Best for the Carnival; this was won by Ryan Davis who was unfortunate enough to suffer an injury during the Grand Final. Ryan does have ties to Lake Grace, being the grandson of Betty Naisbitt (so if you thought she was cheering for the wrong team she wasn't). Runner-up was Aaron Turvey from the Clontarf team.

Mark Hughes won the Terry Waldron Trophy for best Umpire of the carnival. Congratulations to the Lake Grace Pingrup Football Club and their many helpers who did a fantastic job pulling everything together to make it such a successful weekend. They can now sit back and relax for the next two years as Kulin will be hosting the Carnival in 2009 and 2010.

Results for each game were as follows:

Saturday

Game 1 - Oval 1

Goldfields 13 goals 14 (92) defeated Clontarf 10 goals 8 (68).

Milestone Achievement for Local Footballers

It's congratulations to Steve McWhirter, Grant O'Neill and Alex Duckworth for achieving significant milestones in football while playing against Ongerup on Saturday 7th June. Football is an important part of life for all three, providing both a sporting and social outlet for them and many others within the community. The game was exciting with Lake Grace / Pingrup supporters praying for a siren as Ongerup eroded the Bomber's lead, however the players held their own and Lake Grace / Pingrup recorded a six point win.

Alex Duckworth, a veritable newcomer, celebrated playing 50 league games for the Lake Grace Pingrup Bombers. Like Steve and Grant Alex played junior football for Lake Grace. When Alex boarded away at Narrogin he played Colts for the Kukerin / Dumbleyung side. While in year 12 and still wanting to play footy Alex decided to play B Grade for Wickepin (didn't think he would get a game with the Kukerin / Dumbleyung side), receiving the Runner-up fairest and best. Football was forgotten as other priorities took over, but in 2006, while studying at Muresk, Alex played some games for Lake Grace when he came home to the family farm to help out over seeding. In the 2007 and 2008 seasons, Alex has been a regular member of the Lake Grace League side.

Grant O'Neill, showing he's been around the game a little longer, played his 100th league game for Lake Grace / Pingrup. Grant grew up in a sporting environment with Dad (John) playing his fair share of footy and Mum (Debby) wielding a hockey stick. Primary school years were spent playing junior football for Lake Grace; with no high school football competition available in Lake Grace Grant soon gravitated toward the Reserves before making his league debut shortly before his 16th birthday. Although missing some games due to injury; ten years on Grant believes he has plenty of games left in him and looks forward to more milestones. Steve McWhirter, like most local lads, began his football career for Lake Grace in D Grade; at this time Lake Grace were part of the Upper Great Southern League and had a Colts division so Steve was able to play at this level before moving into more senior rankings. Since Lake Grace joined the Ongerup Football Association in 1993, Steve has played 200 League games for Lake Grace. Counting the games he played in the UGS League, his tally would be closer to 400. With the mind willing and the body not far behind there is sure to be a few more games left in Steve.

Rossi Boots 2008 Great Southern Colts Carnival

Nitrogen-fixing microbes

Rising synthetic nitrogen prices means lush, green as grass healthy crops simply cost more. However, TwinN® supplies all your crops with all the nitrogen they need, cost-effectively.

Like Rhizobium in legumes, TwinN® microbes are highly effective in converting large quantities of atmospheric nitrogen into plant available nitrogen, while improving root growth and soil health. TwinN® microbes fix nitrogen as required by the plant, promoting healthy ideal growing conditions.

TwinN®... productive crops, as green as grass, safe and cost-effective.

LAKE GRACE/PINGRUP JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Ongerup travelled up to Lake Grace to play us on our home turf for round six. Ongerup had only won one game to date and had the bare minimum 14 players so we lent them Fergus Downey, Fraser Hunt and Brock Bowron. With the numbers evened up and the two bigger boys making their presence felt for the opposition we had a game on our hands. Tom Taylor was rucking and Regan Smith and Liam Baker were busy around the packs as usual.

Quarter time had us up by a couple of goals, Nash Kirk paid the price of being impulsive when he toe-poked the ball through after a nice mark only to realise it was the points not goals!

The second quarter was similar to the first with Tom Taylor enjoying the extra responsibility, racking up a heap of stats. Our backline was getting plenty of action as well though, as Ongerup never let up the pressure and kept the score board ticking over. Brock came back after half time and Thomas Gambuti had a turn playing for Ongerup. Jack Trevenen and Brady Carruthers had quite a few touches and Michael Hardy and Darren Boulton also got involved in several passages of play. Bradley O'Neill touched a shot on goal, saving one is nearly the same as kicking one Brad, well done. We eventually ran out winners, a good hit out as our next match is against Boxwood Hills.

Fed by Ted Award went to Tom Taylor, thoroughly deserved, a four quarter effort.

Great to see so many of our local boys playing in the colts Carnival, it wasn't that long ago they were running around in D Grade. Congratulations to all involved in organising and running the two day event

PINGRUP LAKE GRACE JUNIOR HOCKEY

Lake Grace- Pingrup v Ongerup

Lake Grace-Pingrup drew with Ongerup; nil all

It was an exciting game for us – our first on our newly marked hockey field. Ongerup made everyone run hard, tackle hard and play hard, but it brought out the best in our players, as the team passed well, held their positions well, and played the best team hockey we've seen this year. Once again it was a nail biter for the spectators with near misses in goals from both sides. Well done to Melanie, this week's goalie, for 2 brilliant saves, and well done to the whole team for playing great hockey. Congratulations to Angus Hunt for winning the 100% award, and to Emma Naisbitt for winning the Team Player award (we don't really expect you to put your body on the line, Emma!). Just a reminder to everyone to bring shin pads and mouthguards to training.

On behalf of the club I'd like to thank Danielle Robinson, Fiona Chatfield, Anna Taylor, Linda Hunt and everyone else who helped mark out the hockey fields. Your expertise is much appreciated!

I'd also like to congratulate Fraser Hunt and Fergus Downey, who spent the long weekend playing in the Ongerup Assoc.13 years and under boys hockey team in Bunbury. The boys were runners up, which is a remarkable achievement considering the number of teams entered.

Thankyou also to all the mums who helped cater for the players tea. We really appreciate the effort you all put into cooking and helping in the kitchen, especially considering the late notice.

TROLL TALES

7th June Lake Grace Vs Bruce Rock

C grade 1-3 to Bruce Rock

C grade fought a hard game today. According to Abbey Trawinski, Eibhlis Newman and Isabella Hendry the team used each other and played in the right positions. Bruce Rock put 3 goals in despite a hard defence from Michaela Hendry and Beth Curtin. Jordy Medlen put the pads on for the first time and put in a gallant effort. Caitlyn Trawinski scored an excellent left wing goal after Gracie Kirk and Shannon Smith feeding the ball through. Coach Mrs. Kirk was full of praise for the side. Coaches Award: Candice Smith

B grade 1-2 to Bruce Rock

B Grade lost in the dying minute of a game that was evenly matched. Lake Grace scored an awesome goal by a sliding Tahryn Gray. At first I thought Tahryn had slid into the post!!! The team had a lot of attack and was unfortunate not to score another in the second half. The backs were solid as usual feeding the forwards. B grade would like to welcome back Penny Willcocks and new player Ané Greyling. Well done to Belinda Bowron and Caryn Kirk for just being them!!

Coaches' award: 2 Jane Bushby
1 Donna Hendry

A grade 2-0 to Lake Grace

Our coach Darren Clifford was wrapped by the game today. He thought it was the best team display this year. At training Darren has been introducing new techniques and set plays. The team today displayed that we might actually listen and that you can teach old trolls new tricks. The score could have been higher if it wasn't for Bruce Rocks goalie performing excellent saves. Goal scorers were Jackie McGlinn and Lyn Carruthers from a penalty flick.

Coaches' award: 2 Jodi Pearce
1 Tahryn Gray

14th June Kukerin Vs Lake Grace

C grade 2-0 to Lake Grace

C grade had a great win today. The team combined well through the mid field to feed the ball out wide. All team players put in a good effort and lots of talking was heard. Goals were scored with skillful team passing in the circle. Well done kids.

Coaches Award: Candice Smith
Goal scorers: Candice Smith,
Gracie Kirk

B grade 1-1 draw

B Grade displayed excellent hockey today. They took on Darren's advice and played the ball back and square. They kept possession and this resulted in a lot of shots on goal. Last time they played, Kukerin were comfortable winners, but today they had to fight really hard as Lake Grace never let up. It was great to see the girls from Narrogin Hostel play and we welcome you back with open arms. Nicole Chappell was the goal scorer, so thanks for coming back.

Coaches' award: 2 Sheridan Fyfe
Belinda Bowron

Goal scorer: Nicole Chappell

A grade 5-0 to Lake Grace

Our coach Darren was wrapped by the game last week; well today he was just ecstatic with our efforts. Not only has Darren taught old trolls new tricks he also can build a killer bon fire, with a little help from Jodi. Today the A grade put on a display of disciplined team hockey. Every member of the team was presenting themselves in attack and was pushing up in defence. This resulted in 5 goals with 5 separate goal scorers. It is excellent to see the training style Darren has introduced executed on the field with positive results.

Coaches' award: 2 Amber McPherson
Jackie McGlinn

Goal scorers: Lyn, Amber, Anna, Jackie and Danielle

A day out playing hockey at Kukerin doesn't end when the final whistle goes. We had another competition to win and wanted to bring home that trophy again. I am very pleased to say we won, yet again, and the trophy can be viewed at the Sportsman's Club. I would like to thank Belinda for the idea that led to our winning and to Tania Spencer for her sewing and artistic flare. To the support crew, thank you for helping me and my heavy load and keeping me erect.

The fun didn't stop there. A bus trip was organized for Tahryn and the theme was the letter T. My favourite outfit was Missy Clifford's as totem tennis. Just ask Di Desmond how real it was. A big thank you, to Darren and Missy for hosting the bon fire and putting on a sausage sizzle. This Saturday is our big rematch against Narembreen, so come along and support your town's hockey side. We are hosting steak teas this Saturday so come on up to the Sportsman's Club and have a steak.
