ANZAC Day 2011

There was a good turnout for Lake Grace's Anzac Day service; although numbers weren't as high as previous years this could be attributed to Anzac Day being part of the Easter long weekend.

Five of Lake Grace's ex service personnel took pride of place as Fr Gayan Thamel welcomed everyone to the ceremony. The Maria Regina parish choir were on hand to provide backing music and vocals for singing throughout the ceremony.

Following the prayer of remembrance Sgt Martin Downey made a thought provoking address, highlighting the horror that Australia's sons found themselves in the midst of. How isolated these young men (many were teenagers) were without the comfort of loved ones; but how they rose to the occasion and got the job done, thereby creating the Anzac legend.

Wreaths were laid on behalf of the RSL, Shire Council, Red Cross, Hospital Auxillary and CWA before families stepped forward to lay wreaths on behalf of family members. Following the recital of The Ode, the playing of the Last Post and a minute's silence; returned serviceman Bill Jenks raised the Australian flag.

Returned Serviceman Len Elliott closed the ceremony, thanking everyone for attending with special mention to Father Gayan for organising the event.

Following the ceremony morning tea was available, catered for by the Catholic Ladies.

Editorial

- It's only a 'little' paper this fortnight, which makes a nice change for all of our volunteer collators, means it will be a much quicker trip around the table. Thank you to everyone who got their stuff in, the very long (but wonderful) weekend certainly made the schedule a little more frantic than normal.
- Don't forget Vicki Webb's (Workforce Development) Career Building workshop that is happening on Monday 16th May (see page 22). This would be suitable for anyone looking for work, wanting to change their career path or for parents wanting more information as their children approach working age.
- We still have a few bulk packs of card left for all those scrapbookers and card makers out there. These packs have at least $6 worth of card in them, we are selling them for $4.
- We are still looking for more names for the Agrimaster workshops, remember funding is available from Farmready and would cover the cost of the workshop. Would like names as soon as possible so that I can start booking some dates.
- Lake Grace CRC has applied for First Click funding, fingers crossed we will be successful and the Resource Centre will be able to offer some free computer workshops for beginners.
- Cheryl is in the midst of applying for some funding to run mobile phone workshops, similar to what Alana ran at the Newdegate CRC a couple of years ago. We will advertise when these workshops will be happening (providing we get the funding).
- If you see a hive of activity at the front of the Library / CRC building on Tuesday it's the planting of the Waterwise garden. Drop in and have a chat with the Great Gardens team or even help with the planting if you wish. The Great Gardens team are holding a workshop at the Village Hall that evening from 6pm—9pm, register at the Shire (bookings are essential). All going well this garden will be a showcase for water wise plants. We only have a few kangaroo paw seed sticks left but will be getting some more next week (there have been some successful germinations). The Water Corporation have also sent us some fact sheets for various types of gardens, everyone is welcome to help themselves to this material if they wish.
- Thank you to everyone who helped out with the Driver Reviver on the weekend, if you are interested in having your name put down as a volunteer please contact myself at the CRC or Marcus Owen at the Shire.

If you are interested in any of the above please phone the Lake Grace Community Resource Centre on 9865 1470.

Tenth Market Day

Windy days in Lake have been few this year, and it usually brings in a change of weather. Saturday 16th April we thought we were in for a change while attending the 10th Lake Grace Visitor's Centre Market Day, but alas no rain this time.

The stalls were varied and interesting. Tupperware with Melissa Clifford was on display and you could order what you liked. Kristie Stanton had a range of beautifully made girls dresses and accessories that are now permanently available at the Visitor's Centre. Misha Clarke was selling a large range of children's toys, books and teddy's. Tineka was there with her beautiful jewellery - what a fantastic time to get that perfect Mothers Day present. Phil Young with his crafted wood caught many peoples eye. Leanne Mahoney and her beautiful edible photo iced cakes, pottery and wood burning. Fletcher Taylor was selling sheep manure, just in time to work in the vegie garden. Wally Perry had a range of house hold items from generators through to fishing rods.

The Camera Club was there reminding people to take their family photos for the 100 year celebration book. If you would like to be included in the history of Lake Grace, the club will be taking photos around town on Sunday 1st May from 9.30am.

Many people spent time chatting while having a hot tea or coffee with homemade scones provided by the Visitor's Centre. There were 9 stall holders for the 10th the Market Day. It was a good day out and all stall holders did well. There have been stalls booked for the next Market Day on 22 October when we celebrate Lake Grace's 100yrs.

The winners of the raffles were Ed Mahoney (Eggs) and Leonie Carruthers (Tupperware).

Lake Grace Visitor Centre's 10th Market Day Wrap Up

A HUGE Thank you to everyone who came along to the Visitor Centre and supported our 10th Market Day on 16th April. It was a superb sunshiny day and people were enjoying wandering around the Centre as well as the nine stalls.

Congratulations to the raffle winners - Ed Mahoney on winning the Easter Eggs with the lucky guess of 101 and to Leonie Carruthers for winning the Tupperware Cooler Bag. Well Done to you both.

Thanks goes to all the volunteers who helped to make the day successful. Your valuable time is very much appreciated. Special THANKS must go to Grant for cooking our sizzling sausages and to Diane for travelling 'home' to man the raffles and money!!

Thank you very much to LG Meat Supply and to the stall holders and finally to "YOU", the general community for enabling us to have TEN fun & successful Market Days.

We are holding another Market Day later in the year on Saturday 22nd October AND have stalls booked already!!! We are very excited and raring to go. We look forward to your continued support and seeing you then.

Thank you, Trish Medlen

Riding into ANZAC Service

The thunder of hooves echoed across the Lake Grace District High School oval on the morning of Tuesday 19th April. The annual ANZAC Commemoration presented by the Lake Grace High School students and staff was a service to remember. Three horses with riders walked round the oval and approached the flag pole while keeping formation. Jane Bushby dismounted Reynard and presented Cayson Earnshaw with the Australian national flag to be raised at half mast.

Light Horsemen brought their civil skills to the defence of the nation. Shooting and riding were skills most young men, especially those in rural areas, learned in their childhood and early teens. In Palestine the temperatures were over 50 degrees and the country lads had to endure sandstorms that could scour paint off a truck. The men in Palestine battled through heat exhaustion, sunstroke and a lack of water. So today we remember those Australian men and women who fought to set others free and to those who stood with courage, to keep our families free in world War II.

Ellen Trevenen honoured the Lake Grace community representatives who have served in the armed forces. Denika Stoffberg and Jai Clifford carried the wreath to the flagpole and laid it at the base. The last post was sounded followed by one minutes silence. A soldiers bugle pierced the air again, Cayson marched to the flagpole and raised the flag to full mast. The National Anthem was sung by the school students and their visitors.

The three riders mounted their horses, Tracie Buntrock on Jimmy, Sally Williams on Sash and Jane Bushby on Reynard. Thank you to those who participated in the 2011 Lake Grace District High school and Lake Grace community ANZAC Commemoration. A delicious morning tea, made by the High School students, was served in the staff room for the visitor's.

Lake Grace District High School staff and parents must be very proud of their students in their presentation of the mornings event. For those who did not get a chance to see WIN news on Tuesday night Lake Grace had 30 seconds of fame with photos and short movies of the service was shown.

Reviving the Drivers

In 2009 Lake Grace Roadwise were successful in securing $12,600 funding from WALGA for investing in a new Driver Reviver van. The old van had done the job but volunteers were convinced that one day it would fall to bits either on its way to being stationed or on the way back to the Fire Station.

The Roadwise committee had nothing concrete in the pipeline, but had based their funding application on the dearest quote they had received for a van. Although Lake Grace's Fire Brigade Captain Ray Bird had relocated to Perth, the Driver Reviver van still remained an important item on his agenda. Ray said that he became a nuisance at caravan yards as he searched for the perfect second hand van for Lake Grace.

Wanneroo Council were upgrading their van and were looking for a buyer for their old one, this became the perfect solution to Lake Grace's problem until Wanneroo admitted they hadn't even commissioned the building of the new van; so would be needing their old one for another 12 months. At this stage WALGA were showing an interest in progress reports for Lake Grace's new Driver Reviver van; Roadwise representative Suzanne Reeves had to confess that we hadn't progressed very far...that Lake Grace were in fact still in the planning stages.

Thankfully men like to make stuff. The local Fire and Rescue volunteers, who have always played a big part in manning the driver reviver, decided they could make a van. They would be able to deconstruct the old van, make a new cabin which would be purpose built to our needs and go from there. The first hiccup was that the only thing worth using off the old van was the tyres. Project Manager, Reid Stubberfield, with the support of other volunteers from Lake Grace Fire and Rescue has brought this project to fruition; Roadwise can now let their funding body know that this project is well past the planning stages.

Cameron Slarke used his 'metal gluing' skills to construct the new chassis, Lake Grace Tyrepower fitted a new axle and brakes, South West Annexes made the cabin while the Stubby's from Outback TV and Brent from Lakeside Auto Electrics completed the domestic and auto electrical work. The van was functional in time for the Easter and Anzac long weekend but still has some way to go. Permanent signage is yet to be done and there are plans in the future to have water tanks and a hot water system installed.

The van had a good workout over the Easter long weekend with the Fire and Rescue volunteers staffing the van on the Thursday; Roadwise and Ambulance volunteers whipping up the refreshments on Good Friday and the Lions taking care of the return traffic on Tuesday. Well over 200 people made use of the van; numbers far higher than have been recorded over previous long weekends. Motorists who took part in a two question speed awareness quiz will go in the drawer for a $30 Dymocks voucher, providing they get the questions right.

Driver Revivers provide motorists an opportunity to stop, stretch their legs and have a free cup of tea or coffee. Volunteers are also able to inform motorists of where they can get fuel and food, direct them toward the toilets or simply have a chat. Goody bags were also available to be given to children. Those manning the driver reviver say they would rather give up a few hours of their time making coffee, than have to attend an accident; that if they can save one life then the Driver Reviver is a success.

Lake Grace Roadwise will set a calendar for the remainder of 2011, mapping out the long weekends and when the van will be put to use. Predominantly the van is manned by representatives of Lake Grace Fire and Rescue, Lake Grace Lions and Lake Grace St John Ambulance sub centre; with a few individuals who aren't part of these groups also giving their time. If you would like to offer up some of your time (doesn't have to be every long weekend) to make coffee and have a chat please contact Suzanne Reeves at the Lake Grace Community Resource Centre.

Our little community received some very favourable comments from travellers; from the cleanliness of the town, the waterwise and very green lawn, the great facilities at the shed, the clean toilets and the thoughtfulness of a dog bowl at the station.

Below: The new Driver Reviver van.

Quips, Quotes & Anecdotes

Good day there,

Well here we are already at the end of April 2011. Way back in the distant memories are the events of Xmas 2010, the start of year 2011, the dry hot days of summer. But with us are the glorious days of autumn and the expectation that soon, very soon I hope, of some glorious rainy days of winter.

Winter brings many different things for different people i.e. for the farmers, the hope of a good seeding season. For those lucky enough to arrange their annual holidays at this time there's an opportunity to holiday in some warmer northern territory's or possibly spend time at a skiing resort.

Not for me and the wife. This winter our plans are to stay at home (which will be a novelty), crank up the wood fire, put on some good music and read some good books. Just for a change we may watch a good movie, play cards or scrabble (better if we play cards as I can win at that).

The old saying goes 'if you have a good book to read then you always have a good friend' so if you want a good friend I can fully recommend the following books/authors to help fill in the rainy days.

Peter Fitzsimmons - Peter is an Australian author who has written many books covering many topics. Biographies of Steve Waugh, Les Darcy, John Eales, Nancy Wake, Charles Kingsford Smith and those Magnificent Men and the following two, Kokoda and Tobruk. These two, though historical accounts of the war years, Peter develops the characters which virtually turn the graphic description of these events into a very intriguing novel. A must read if you want to understand what our soldiers experienced during World War 2.

Ken Follett is another author renowned for his epic stories. Such as 'Pillars of the Earth', a story of the middle ages and the building of the cathedrals. Then came 'World without End', another huge book, a detailed and powerful story which brilliantly accounts the period that saw the devastating Black Death plague and the birth of modern medicine. His latest publication is book one in the trilogy 'The Century'. Titled 'The Fall of the Giants' it tells the story of five families brought together through the dramas of the First World War, the Russian Revolution and the struggle for the votes for women. Terrific reading.

Two lady authors who write fabulous novels dealing with Australia and particularly the Kimberley are Judy Nunn and Di Morrissey. For an intriguing and hard to solve murder mystery Elizabeth George is hard to top.

Court room drama authors such as John Grisham and Richard North Patterson are leaders in this field. Stephen King, master horror writer, rises to great heights with his novel 'Hearts of Atlantis'; entirely different from some of his other novels such as 'Salem's Lot', 'Misery' and 'Gerald Game'.

Some other very good story tellers who have produced the books to prove it are Peter Watts, James Patterson, Dean Kootz, Cody McFaddin. Australian author Bryce Courtney always produces a very good novel.

If you like to delve into the world of Science fiction and fantasy you can't go past Stephen Donaldson. His classic five volumes in the 'Gap Series', a journey into space and his 10 volume of the Thomas Covenant Chronicles is nothing short of exhilarating adventure reading.

So winter will be all the better for you if you snuggle up before the fire and get close to a good friend, your books.

A couple of issues ago I mentioned having some inspirational writing I had collected many years ago from a monthly business magazine I received and want to share with you. The following is one that may help you if you are a worrier.

Why Worry

There are only two things to worry about in the world. Either you are well or you are sick.

If you are well, there is nothing at all for you to worry about.

However if you are sick, there are still only two things to worry about. Either you will get well or you will snuff it.

If you get well there is nothing at all to worry about, except getting sick again.

However if you snuff it there are still only two things to worry about. Either you will go to heaven or you will go to hell.

If you go to heaven there is nothing at all to worry about.

However if you go to hell, you'll be so busy catching up with all your old mates, you won't get time to worry.

So Why Worry?

And this one really sums up who has the problems in this world.

Inner Strength

If you can start the day without caffeine or pep pills,

If you can be cheerful, ignoring aches and pains,

If you can resist complaining and boring people with your troubles,

If you can eat the same food every day and be grateful for it,

If you can understand when loved ones are too busy to give you time,

If you can overlook when people take things out on you when,

through no fault of yours, something goes wrong,

If you can take criticism and blame without resentment,

If you can face the world without lies and deceit,

If you can conquer tension without medical help,

If you can relax without liquor,

If you can sleep without the aid of drugs,

If you can do all these things,

Then you are probably the family dog.

That's it for now. Just remember, start the day off the way you wish the rest of your day to be.

Across the Lake 2007 Shiraz

IT'S not every day the country's wine doyen bestows glowing praise on your 'little baby' of a wine.

But that's exactly what James Halliday did during his duties as judge at the 2008 Qantas Wine Show, awarding a gold medal to Across The Lake's stunning 2007 shiraz.

For Peter and Lyn Taylor, it was fruitful recognition for a long and sustained effort to produce quality shiraz in a cabernet-savvy town.

The Taylors established Across The Lake after their sons took over the family's wheat and sheep farming enterprise in Lake Grace.

In 1999 they planted two hectares of shiraz in the tiny South-West town not usually known for its winemaking prowess.

Their first vintage was in 2002 but they did not exhibit until 2003, when their shiraz won bronze at the Mount Barker Qantas Wine Show.

It has since gone on to win several awards at wine shows but, with the 2007 vintage, a star has now been discovered.

The shiraz was awarded second-best in WA at the Sheraton Wine Show before its gold at the Qantas Wine

Show, with Halliday awarding it 95 points.

Of course it helps when you have one of WA's snazziest winemakers in Di Miller on deck, who now weaves her magic wand at Pemberton winery Bellarmine, no stranger to awards themselves.

Across The Lake Wines, which also feature a rosé, are now made by Coby Ladwig at Matilda's Winery in Denmark.

To see what all the fuss is about, visit www.acrossthelakewines.com.au and place an order.

Across The Lake 2007 Shiraz $25, 13.9%, 96pts

One of the ugliest labels you'll ever see but one of the most bedazzling bouquets around, one that leaves you instantly intrigued and aroused. On the nose it has rich, deep, intense plum and smoky cigar overtones. It seems perfect – a lovely blend that's seductive, broody and full of class. And wow what a mouthful. Upfront flavours of raisins and mocha, it's sexual chocolate, pure and simple. Balanced tannins, acidity, fruit and alcohol leave you hanging on every drop for more. A truly sensation representation of what South-West shiraz can be.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTORS' MEETING

It is hereby notified that the Shire President under Section 5.28 (1) of the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act) has received a request from 186 electors for a special electors' meeting.

The request meets the requirements of 100 electors or 5% (i.e. 51) of electors and specifies that it wants to:

1. 1. Discuss ward boundaries and all options
2. 2. The lack of progress for the Newdegate Medical Centre
3. 3. Why the Committee for the Newdegate Rejuvenation has not yet been informed

In keeping with Section 5.29 of the Act I am now required to convene a special electors' meeting by giving:

- (a) at least 14 days local public notice; and
- (b) notice to each council member.

Accordingly, I can advise that the President under Section 5.28 (4) of the Act has selected Wednesday 4 May 2011 as the day to hold the special electors' meeting to deal with the request by the electors. The meeting is to commence at 7:30pm in the Newdegate Recreation Centre, Newdegate.

Please note that any consideration by Council of decisions made at the special electors' meeting are to be made at the first ordinary council meeting after the special electors' meeting or a special meeting called for that purpose.

Queries regarding this notice can be addressed to me accordingly at the Shire Office 9890 2500.

Sean Fletcher, CEO, Shire of Lake Grace

ROAD TRAINS IN TOWNSITES

It has come to the Shire's notice that road trains are not using the designated road train routes in our townsites (i.e. the correct streets) and are constantly causing damage to the street kerbing, footpaths, roads and laneways at a sizeable cost to the ratepayers.

Do these road train users realise that they are liable for the repair costs if the Shire was to pursue the matter?

If anyone in the community has concerns and knows who these 'users' are — please let the Shire know so that the matter can be followed up.

Maps showing the town streets designated for road trains will be made available to transport companies and the local businesses served by these companies in the near future.

Proof of Age Card

The proof of age card is a personal identity card which is available to anyone 18 years or over. The card fits easily into your purse or wallet and shows only those details considered necessary for identification, including your:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Signature
- Photograph

For security reasons, your card does not show your address. The proof of age card is designed primarily for accessing licensed premises. There is no obligation on institutions to accept the card for proof of identity purposes.

To apply for a proof of age card you need to complete a proof of age card application form that you can pick up from a regional licensing agent, the Lake Grace Shire.

When applying for the proof of age card, you must attend the regional licensing agent in person. You will need to:

- Provide one primary and one secondary proof of identification documents – one of which must contain your signature.
- Provide the completed application form.
- Pay a fee.

A primary identification document could be:

- An Australian passport.

- An Australian citizenship or immigration papers issued by the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs.
- A birth certificate (not extract).
- A photographic licence issued by an Australian driver licensing authority.

If you have changed your name, you must also provide one of the following:

- Marriage certificate.
- Divorce papers.
- Change of name certificate, deed poll papers or licence to change name documentation.

A secondary identification document could be:

- A current entitlement card issued by a Commonwealth government department (for example, a Medicare card).
- A current credit card or account card from a bank, building society or credit union.
- A telephone, gas or electricity account no more than 12 months old.
- A water or local rates notice or land valuation notice not more than two years old.

The application will be processed, the card manufactured and posted out to you. The process normally takes five to eight working days.

Rick Wilson Endorsed as the Liberal Candidate for O'Connor

The Liberal Party of Western Australia today endorsed Mr Rick Wilson as the Liberal Candidate for O'Connor. Rick Wilson said "I'm running to be the Member for O'Connor because I believe that this electorate has unique issues which through my experiences as a farmer, family man and representing grain growers, I can understand and take action. "Raising a family of four with my wife, Tanya, we know the pressures on families in rural WA".

"I teach my kids that we have to be active in our community if we want to see things changed for the better. That's why I'm running so the people of O'Connor have a conservative voice that will stand up in our area." Rick Wilson said "as the Liberal candidate and Tony Abbott's representative in O'Connor, I look forward to strongly representing the people of O'Connor and reflecting their genuine concerns about issues affecting them."

Rick Wilson outlined some of the reasons for running for the seat of O'Connor as:

- I don't support a carbon tax, and I never will
- I will campaign for improved health services in rural and regional Western Australia

- I want a comprehensive and co-ordinated roads and infrastructure plan for regional Western Australia
- I believe in a strong and orderly border protection system so that the people who follow the rules and do the right thing have a chance in living in our great country and
- I believe that we should let our industries thrive and flourish without being strangled by government bureaucracy and red tape.

The State President of the WA Liberal Party, Barry Court, welcomed the endorsement of Mr Rick Wilson as the Liberal candidate for O'Connor.

Barry Court said "If the people of O'Connor want to guarantee that their vote will contribute to getting rid of the failed and high taxing Gillard Labor Government then their only choice is to support Rick Wilson as the Liberal candidate.

"The Liberal Party looks to regain the seat of O'Connor so that we can all be sure that, with Rick Wilson as the Member for O'Connor, he will contribute 100% to Tony Abbott becoming Prime Minister of Australia."

Mother's Day falls on different days depending on the countries where it is celebrated. It is held on the second Sunday of May in many countries, such as Australia, Canada and the United States. It is held exactly three weeks before Easter Sunday in the United Kingdom. Sundays are usually non-school and non-working days in these countries.

Mother's Day is an annual public holiday in countries such as Costa Rica (August 15, on the same day as Assumption Day), Georgia (March 3), Samoa (second Monday of May), and Thailand (August 12). Restaurants and cafes may be busier than usual as some people take their mothers out for a treat.

Early Mother's Day celebrations can be dated back to the spring celebrations to honor Rhea, the Mother of the Gods, in ancient Greek civilization, according to some sources. Later, Mothering Sunday in the United Kingdom was traditionally a day for people to visit the church where they were baptized, although it now also celebrates motherhood in modern times.

The modern-day origins of Mother's Day can be attributed to two women – Julia Ward Howe and Anna Jarvis, who were important in establishing the tradition in the United States. Around 1870, Julia Ward Howe called for Mother's Day to be celebrated each year. It continued to be held in Boston for about 10 years under her sponsorship, but died out after that. Other sources say that Juliet Calhoun Blakely initiated Mother's Day in Albion, Michigan, in the late 1800s. Her sons paid tribute to her each year and urged others to honour their mothers.

In 1907, Anna Jarvis held a private Mother's Day celebration in memory of her mother, Ann Jarvis, in Grafton, West Virginia. In 1908, she played a key role in arranging a church service that attracted 407 children and their mothers. A Mother's Day International Association was founded in 1912 to promote the holiday in other countries. Mother's Day has grown increasingly popular since then.

Many people believe that Mother's Day is now largely commercialized, with card companies, flower shops, jewellery stores, gift shops, restaurants, hotels, and department stores advertising promotions and special deals for this event. Anna Jarvis, in her lifetime, unsuccessfully filed a lawsuit to stop the over-commercialization of Mother's Day.

There are various ways to show an appreciation for mothers and mother figures on Mother's Day. They include white carnations, which Anna Jarvis asked to be the official symbol for the day, as well as the International Mother's Day Shrine. This shrine is dedicated to the preservation of motherhood. The structure is listed on the National Register of Historic Places in the United States. It is located together with a museum at Grafton, West Virginia, and aims to preserve, promote and develop the spirit of motherhood.

The Pioneers of Lake Grace

As continued on from last fortnight.

"Costs are too high at present to make dam sinking on each block a reasonable proposition," added Mr Carruthers. "It would cost at least 2 shillings and 6 pence a yard to put down a dam at Newdegate now. The money would be loaded on the land – all the costs of course, will be borne by the blocks – making the capital charges unnecessarily high, whereas if a few dams, instead of many, are excavated for the time being, the settler will be able later on to dig them for eighteen pence a yard."

"You think then, that the project promises well?"

Earnestly the practical Scotsman spoke; "To put it in a nutshell, we think the scheme is perfect. It was put before us by the officers, and we were only able to make suggestions on details of the clearing and water supplies – by the bye, don't forget to say that the boree must be cut for posts. We do not see how it can fail. In less than five years Newdegate and Lake Grace should be producing 250,000 bags of wheat."

"Meanwhile, the situation in respect to our local unemployed and immigrants will be relieved?" "What is your opinion of the latter day immigrant?"

"There are good men among them – I had a Scotch Pommy –"

"You can't beat the North country man," murmured Mr Franks, with a reflective shake of the head.

"who came out in March, 1921," continued Mr Carruthers. "I employed him as soon as he arrived, and he drove an eight horse team on the plough during seeding. I went for a trip to the old country, and my son put him on clearing some heavy forest land. In a hundred days he cut down, and had ready for burning, 96 acres. He has since burned it off."

The three settlers from Lake Grace will return to their district today or tomorrow. Their advice has been most helpful to the Minister and his officers; and the hearty approval with which these experienced and successful farmers – one from Scotland, another from the North Country, and the third, Mr McMahon, an Australian – extend to the proposals of the Government, are testimony to the soundness of the scheme. Willing workmen need not for long stand idle in our cities.

THE PRELIMINARY WORK

With cases of axes and many provisions, of the first 150 men deployed to Newdegate, 120 were put to work almost immediately under the supervision of Steve Rodgers. Throughout the life of the scheme 400 men were employed. The West Australian continues the story with some detail of the organization required putting the clearing scheme into action. It is perhaps not realized how much organization is required to launch successfully a scheme such as the Government has undertaken at Newdegate. To supply equipment for 150 men, to arrange for their transport and to make adequate provision for supplying the necessities of life is not the work of a moment. The centre of the Newdegate district where the Governments clearing-before-settlement policy is to be put into effect, is 32 miles from the railway terminus at Lake Grace. The Government decided to profit by the advice of some of the local pioneers regarding clearing methods and costs, and it was only last Monday that the conference took place between the departmental officers and Messres Carruthers, Franks and McMahon.

Since then the officers of the department have been working apace to complete their arrangements, and the men will leave Perth on Wednesday to commence their contracts. Mr Anketell, the engineer in charge, gave a "West Australian" representative some idea of the preliminary work that had to be done. Operations are to begin on 30 blocks, on each of which a party of five men will be placed. This necessitated the provision of forty tents which have been procured from the Military Department. Fifteen 200 gallon tanks were required to maintain a supply of water for the various parties and these had to be constructed. The idea is to distribute these tanks in such a manner that none of the men will have to walk more than a mile for water. The Government will replenish them from the 2,000 yard tank [dam] at Newdegate, and for this purpose eight drays and 16 draught horses will be necessary. Cooking and eating utensils and blankets and the necessary tools for each man had to be procured, and arrangements had to be made for providing meals for the men while on their journey from Perth to Newdegate, the last 32 miles of which will be on the road.

Stores for the men will be obtained at Lake Grace, and the cost will be deducted from their earnings. The Government will deliver the stores from Lake Grace to the camps at actual cost, and for this purpose they purchased last Monday a 2 ton lorry. Approximately 2½ tons of horse feed will be required per week.

The District Surveyor at Narrogin (Mr Fox) is working at full pressure surveying further blocks, and Mr Anketell hopes that he will be able to absorb another 100 men within the next fortnight.

On Thursday Mr Anketell and Mr S Rodgers (Government Supervisor at Newdegate) selected 152 men at the State Labour Bureau. Great care was exercised in making the selection, and both officers feel satisfied that the men will give a good account of themselves.

Mr Anketell, who is in charge of the arrangements and responsible for every detail being attended to, laid particular stress on the fact that he had received every assistance from other Government representatives. He also wished it to be made known that the Messres Carruthers, Franks and McMahon had offered to meet the Supervisor on the ground when ever desired, and help him with their local knowledge.

Electoral Boundary Suggestions

Now Available for Public Comment

The first phase of the electoral boundaries review, the call for written suggestions, closed on Friday at 5:00pm.

A total of 18 suggestions were received by a number of local governments, community groups, members of parliament, political parties and members of the general public.

Suggested changes covered the whole State down to local areas. In particular, there were suggestions of possible splits to local government areas in the Pilbara and South West, a possible change to the metropolitan area boundary and various other changes across the metropolitan area.

Adoption of any of these suggestions will change how people are represented after the next election.

Copies of written suggestions are now available on the website at www.boundaries.wa.gov.au or by visiting our office at level 2, 111 St Georges Terrace, Perth.

Warwick Gately, spokesperson for the Electoral Distribution Commissioners, said "People will be able comment on these suggestions, until 5:00pm on Friday 29 April".

"Following the comments phase, the proposed boundaries will be available on Friday, 10 June. Written objections can then be lodged until 5:00pm on Monday, 11 July.

The distribution will be conducted by three Electoral Distribution Commissioners:

- former Supreme Court judge (Chair): The Hon. Neville Owen
- Electoral Commissioner: Mr Warwick Gately AM
- Government Statistician: (subject to confirmation)

For more information on the electoral boundary review process visit www.boundaries.wa.gov.au or call the Office of the Electoral Distribution Commissioners on 9214 0450 or 13 63 06 (toll-free in Western Australia).

Things That Cause Distress

As we are all aware certain problems we face cause significant distress in our lives. At the top of the list is the loss of a loved one in unexpected or tragic circumstances.

Other significant things on the list include relationship breakdowns, moving house, loss of employment, being diagnosed with a serious illness and one we often overlook struggling with financial problems.

We often overlook how significant financial issues can impact on our overall wellbeing. Research tells us that when we are having difficulties financially it can lead to some of the other issues that are on the list.

Financial stress is in many ways similar to the impact of the dry season; it is more insidious than a significant dramatic event like the earthquake or the flood. Those events have immediate consequences that are highly visible as a reason for our distress or grief.

The gradual insidious creep of financial distress, like a drought, slowly erodes our passion for our work and eats away at our confidence. This can lure us into a sense of hopelessness that with time erodes our get up and have another go attitude so necessary in farming.

Given these problems it is important to be realistic about your budget, be optimistic but keep within the realms of reality, maybe give thought to other options because if your enterprise isn't projecting reasonable returns, given an average season, it could be your chance to consider change.

We know that if these matters are not addressed our wellbeing is impacted in so many ways. Our physical health and our relationships with our partners and children suffer.

Remember it is the insidious things that often have greatest long term effects on our health. They are also often the things we ignore and hope they will dissipate by themselves, most times they don't they just fester and get worse.

Look after every aspect of your wellbeing, it's the things we ignore or neglect that give us the most grief.

Humour

Choking

When the wealthy businessman choked on a fish bone at a restaurant, he was fortunate that a doctor was seated at a nearby table.

Springing up, the doctor skilfully removed the bone and saved his life.

As soon as the fellow had calmed himself and could talk again, he thanked the surgeon enthusiastically and offered to pay him for his services.

"Just name the fee," he croaked gratefully.

"Okay," replied the doctor. "How about half of what you'd have offered when the bone was still stuck in your throat?"

Football Wedding

One says, "It's ridiculous, he's rich, but he's 93 years old, and she's just 26! What kind of a wedding is that?"

The other says, "Well, we have a name for it in my family."

"What do you call it?"

"We call it a football wedding."

The first asks, "What's a football wedding?"

The other says, "She's waiting for him to kick off!"

A Penthouse in Heaven

The Pope dies and goes to heaven. When he gets there, Saint Peter shows him to his new quarters which turn out to be a tiny one bedroom apartment.

The Pope is horrified and wants to know why he doesn't have the penthouse apartment, which is huge.

Saint Peter informs him that the resident of the penthouse is a lawyer.

"A lawyer," says the Pope. "But I'm the Pope, surely I'm more important."

"With respect Sir," says Saint Peter, "We have lots of Pope's up here, but we only have ONE lawyer!"

Tracking the Weather

It was October and the Indians on a remote reservation asked their new Chief if the coming winter was going to be cold or mild. Since he was a Chief in a modern society he had never been taught the old secrets. When he looked at the sky he couldn't tell what the winter was going to be like. Nevertheless, to be on the safe side he told his tribe that the winter was indeed going to be cold and that the members of the village should collect firewood to be prepared.

But being a practical leader, after several days he got an idea. He went to the phone booth, called the National Weather Service and asked, "Is the coming winter going to be cold?"

It looks like this winter is going to be quite cold the meteorologist at the weather service responded.

So the Chief went back to his people and told them to collect even more firewood in order to be prepared. A week later he called the National Weather Service again. Does it still look like it is going to be a very cold winter?

Yes, the man at National Weather Service again replied, it's going to be a very cold winter.

The Chief again went back to his people and ordered them to collect every scrap of firewood they could find. Two weeks later the Chief called the National Weather Service again. Are you absolutely sure that the winter is going to be very cold?

Absolutely, the man replied. It's looking more and more like it is going to be one of the coldest winters ever.

"How can you be so sure?" the Chief asked.

The weatherman replied, "The Indians are collecting firewood like crazy!"

Are You Up For the Healthy Heart Challenge?

A free, 10-week program that will help women take control of their heart health - the Healthy Heart Challenge - will be launched next week at the start of Heart Week (1-7 May).

Heart Week runs every year in the first week of May when GPs, hospitals, pharmacies, and health and community organisations come together to help raise awareness of heart disease, Australia's number one killer.

The Healthy Heart Challenge will start on 1 June 2011, and registrations will open on 1 May 2011. To sign up go to www.goredforwomen.org.au.

Many Australians believe that heart disease only affects older men but it is the number one killer of Australian women, and kills almost as many women as it does men. It is the number one killer of women in Australia and takes the lives of 216 women each week.

Heart Foundation Chief Executive Maurice Swanson said it was important to know that heart disease was not always obvious.

"Having a heart attack could be the first sign. Risk factors include high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol, diabetes and family history and these conditions don't always have obvious symptoms," he said.

"Ninety per cent of women have at least one risk factor of heart disease. Take action and get together with a friend and join thousands of other women in signing up for the Healthy Heart Challenge."

"Most women don't realise their risk of heart disease increases significantly after menopause.

"The Heart Foundation will be conducting a free, 10-week Healthy Heart Challenge to help Australian women make lifestyle changes necessary to improve their heart health and reduce their risk of developing heart disease.

"If you're able to make changes for 10 weeks, you're well on the way to improving your overall long-term health."

On registering for the Healthy Heart Challenge, participants will be asked to select one of six key goals:

- be active everyday
- improve everyday nutrition
- increase knowledge of heart health
- quit smoking
- lower high blood pressure
- lower high cholesterol levels.

For the following 10 weeks, participants will receive a weekly eNewsletter with tips and information to keep them motivated throughout their Healthy Heart Challenge, as well as the opportunity to take advantage of exclusive sponsor offers and prizes.

"We hope that completing the Healthy Heart Challenge will provide Australian women with a headstart towards improving their heart health and inspire them to encourage others to reduce their risk of heart disease," Mr Swanson said.

To sign up go to www.goredforwomen.org.au or call the Heart Foundation office on 9388 3343 for further information.

Lake Grace Golf Club Notes

The golf season kicked off on Sunday the 17th of April which saw a turn out of 26 golfers, a good number considering quite a few people were away. The 3 Man Ambrose Event was sponsored by Fyfe Transport and the winners on the day were J. Bray, G. Pinney, S. McSwain and the ever crafty G. Frost who came in with a net score of 53 and 7/8. Coming in second was J. Joyce, T. Adams and B. McKenny with a net score of 55 and 5/6. Thank you to the Fyfe's for their sponsorship.

On Easter Sunday a 4BBB club day was held and it was good to see some new faces. Fourteen people teed off and the winners on the day were C. Joyce and M. Spurr with 51 points. Second place went to the President C. Reeves who was in blistering form for his first hit of the year and K. Eggers. It was a pretty big bar tab for all that played and an enjoyable day for all. It was good to see the Joyce boys get a golfing lesson from their old man.

Special thanks also to Robert Carruthers who kindly donated a set of harrows, and Dennis Knill for his donation of 15 tonne of Gypsum.

If there is anyone who is interested in playing 9 holes of golf instead of 18 on Sundays please express your interest, hit off would be at 3 o'clock and green fees $5. Contact either Merv (0447 780 365) or Reevo (0427 657 226) if you wish to play, preferably call us no later than 11 o'clock on Sunday.
